

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160. The proposed restrictions on satellite radio service offer no benefit to consumers. If the concern is promotion of local programing, it seems to me that those who have managed traditional radio broadcasting the last twenty years have let that slip away anyway (with the emergence of a few big players in the radio business who have greatly homogenized the offerings) and any offering by satellite radio will enhance the options available.